Dear Parents:

Orange Glen High School is working hard to improve the academic achievement of all of our students. One of the best ways for families to help their children succeed is by becoming actively involved in the school and their children's academic life. Orange Glen offers many opportunities for parents to get involved with ensuring their student's academic success.

First, Orange Glen's Parent Center offers help for parents with issues you may be facing with your teen or to get information about the school. The Parent Center is open from 4:00 – 8:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon. Also, classes are offered on such topics as positive parenting, charting a course to college, and computer skills. OG parents may also learn a foreign language using our Rosetta Stone language learning system. A schedule of classes is enclosed.

Second, every Tuesday in February and March we will be offering a series of workshops entitled Parenting for Academic Success. These workshops will provide a great deal of information about how we can work with our children at home to ensure their academic success, as well as how to motivate and inspire them. The workshops will be held from 6:30-8:00 p.m. Food and childcare are always provided. A flyer with topics is also enclosed.

Finally, we hope that all parents will become familiar with the many tutoring and test preparation programs that the school offers. Free tutoring in all subject areas is offered before school, after school and on Saturdays. You do not need to register your student in advance; all tutoring is done on a drop in basis. We recommend that all students take advantage of this tutoring, especially to prepare for the very important California High School Exit Exam (CAHSEE) and CST exams.

Thank you for everything you do to motivate your student. If you have any questions about our parent involvement programs, please call our Parent Center at 760-291-5023

Sincerely,

Thomas N. Allison
